RIO DE JANEIRO, AUGUST 5th, 1889.

The case of the French mail packet Béarn, which was detained in this port a full week beyond her regular time on account of the inability of the government to decide whether or not to permit the landing of a large number of Turkish immigrants, is one which merits more attention than it has thus far received. We do not undertake to say whether the government should, or should not, receive immigrants of this class, but we do say that the authorities should decide every question of this character promptly and then adhere to it so that the steamship companies may not be subjected to unnecessary delays and expenses. We understand that many of these Turks brought money and merchandise with them, and that others came out to join relatives or were under labor contracts in this country. They are perhaps no worse than many others introduced from Italy and elsewhere, but, however this may be, if the authorities consider them undesirable then let the Brazilian consuls and the steamship agencies in Europe be advised that they will not in future be permitted to land. Waiting until their arrival and then refusing to permit their landing is sheer injustice, and if to this be added the delay of one week in the departure of a steamer carrying passengers, mails and freight, we have a case against the government of grave importance. And then, at the end of it all, the authorities are compelled to give way and the undesirable Turks are permitted to land! It is far from creditable to Brazil that so much weakness and indecision should be exhibited in matters like this. Add to this the continued assembling of impoverished immigrants in Rua D. Manoel, subjected to all the hardships and vices to which we have already called attention, and then the arrival of 180 others from São Paulo under the delusion that the government would send them back to Europe, and we have a state of affairs connected with the service of immigration which reflects very little credit on Brazil. Perhaps it will some day be admitted that the warnings given in these columns were not without cause.

Among ourselves the foreigner is, and we desire that he shill always remain so, a privileged guest, of whose liberty, security and rights we Brazilians or whose interty, security and rights we Brazilians ought to be the principal gnarantee and the strongest shield to defend him whenever he may be threatened or injured, be it by arbitrary and violent authority, be it by an excited or buttal individual, in the expression of his own native sentiment, of which there has been made, and is exactly to make which there has been made, and is sought to make, a speculation which is at times political and at times simply mercantile. — O Paiz, 31st July.

If we are not mistaken our colleague of the Pais is trying to take a position against the chauvinism which occasionally creeps into discussions of the rights of foreigners to express opinions in this country on questions of a political character. It is satisfactory to see Sr. Bocayuva taking upon himself this sensible view of the question, for it is not so long ago that sentiments of a very different character were expressed in the columns of that journal. We may be permitted to state, however, that the rights and privileges which we have enjoyed thus far have not been materially jeopardized by the mistaken zeal of the Portuguese minister, nor are they likely to be secured to us more fully by the republican party, of which our colleague is the chosen leader. There may not be as prompt and just an execution of the laws as we could wish, the respect for contracts and agreements is not quite what we could desire, and there is at times more or less usurpation on the part of officialsbut in all this the native is quite as much a sufferer as the foreigner. We do not ask exemption from legal and uniform penalties where we break the laws of the country, nor do we ask for special privileges. In all this, however, there is an impression among us-perhaps an erroneous one-that all these rights and privileges will be better guaranteed under the present form of government than under the impending republic. We have really less to complain of here than have our friends in neighboring republics. The empire may not be very lively and ambitious, but it lets us alone in many respects where our nominally free neighbors are continually meddling. We are much obliged to the Paiz, however, for its kind intentions, but we trust we shall not be compelled to take shelter behind so uncertain an ægis. And, still further, we do not care to figure as "privileged guests." We are here by right, our money is invested here, enormous sums of capital belonging to our countrymen at home are invested in this country, and we consider it our duty and privilege to look after these matters in our own way and according to our own judgment

Provincial Notes

-A large number of counterfeit 20$ and 200$ treasury notes have made their appearance in Rio Grande.

The Amazonas provincial assembly appro-priated 15,000$ for the reception of the Conde d'Eu at Manáos.

-The minister of agriculture has declined to —The minister of agriculture has declined to sanction the purchase of a piece of land by the president of Amazonas where Ceará immigrants are to be stellered. The minister says the price is too high, liesiles which the state owns lands in the province suitable for the purpose in question.

-On the 2nd inst. the province of Ceará was granted another credit, this time for 1,000,000$ for drought-stricken people. Ceará will pretty soon he covered over with government funds, at the expense of the rent of the empire. On the same day Pianly gets 200,000$, Rio Graude do Norte 500,000$ and Parahyba 500,000$* for the same purpose.

-It is a crying shame. The Aracajú correspondent of the Fornal de Commercio writing under date of the 16th ult. says the new president of Sergipe has occupied himself in taking bread out of the mouths of poor lattiers of families. Sr. So. of the mouths of poor fathers of families. Sr. So-dré should be prosecuted by the republicans for his brutality.

-Here is one for the benedicts! According to the Sul de S. Paulo, there is an old farmer living at Santa Quiteria, Minas Geraes, who is 150 years old and is still able to work and remains all bis mental faculties. More than that, he is a bachelor. married men ever survive their hundreth birthday

-Bahia dates of the 24th ult. represent a very had state of affairs in the interior of that province. There is great lack of employment and the poor people are therefore suffering from hunger. Thefis and assassinations are common and the prisons are full of people driven to crime to escape starvation.

—In September, 1868, a peculiarly brutal crime was committed at Picada Nova, Rio Grande do Sul, lya man named Annibal Dutra da Silva and his father-in-law just after a wedding, the vectum being a guest who had excited Annibal's jealousy. The victim was bourluly mutilated hefore he was killed. The assassins manageal to keep clear of arrest until a short time since when Annibal was caught. He hereupon claimed immunily from prosecution on the ground that the period for arrest had expired, and the court admitted the claim. The father-in-law then sets up the same claim, and both of the brutes are now safe from arrest. It's law, even if it is not justice i

RAILROAD Notes

-The Minas provincial assembly voted a 7% — The Brinas provincial assembly voted a 7% interest guarantee on the 1st inst, for an extension of the Sapucahy line to a junction with the "Lavras a Jacutinga" line belonging to the Santa Isaliel do Rio Preto company.

-The "Rio Claro, S. Paulo, Railway" compan has just been organized in London with a capital of £600,000 in 5 per cent obligations. The shares were issued at the ohligations at 102 per cent. -Aloniteur des Intérêts Matériels.

-The minister of agriculture has advised the director of the D. Pedro II line that the charge for director of the D. Pedro 11 line that the charge for transferring pig-iron at Lafayette, on account of break of gauge, should be 1$000 per ton, and not 100 reis per kilogramme as previously advised. The difference is certainly an appreciable one—1$000 instead of 100$000 per ton.

-The fiscal engineer of the S. Paulo railway —The fiscal engineer of the S. Paulo railway advises the government that the balance earned by that line in 1888 amounted to 4,333,097$—or £493,098 or 8½ at par—which is equivalent to a net earning of 18.6 per cent. on the gnaranteed capital of £4,550,000. The net balance in 1887 was 14.8 per cent. The returns of the last three years are stated to be:

LOCAL NOTES

-Pilly-willy-wink! das ist mein Fifer!

-For 22 vacan1 clerkships in the postoffice here, there were 168 candidates. There will be 146 republicans as a result.

-The "Sportive Centre" has fallen out with the Derby Club and will enter none of the horses belonging to its members at the club's races.

-The Fornal on the 31st ult. hears that Dr. José Carlos Rodrigues, at present in Europe in the employ of the department of agriculture, has been ordered to report here.

-The Emperor has selected Conselheiro Antonio Carneiro da Rocha as senator from the province of Bahia 10 fill the vacancy caused by the death of Barão de Cotegipe. The new senator is a liberal.

-Good for the Gazeta. They could not obtain a picture of the man recently murdered by negroes hear Campos, but they found a man who he known the victim, and from his recollection p duced a likeness.

—On the 30th ult, the minister of agriculture addressed α very energetic note to the inspector general of public works in regard to the mater sup-ply. The minister appears to have lost his patience, and it is not wonderful either.

-Some 150 Italian immigrants, principally women and children, arrived liere from S. Panlo women and culturen, arrived neie from 5. ranio on the evening of the 30th ult. They were destined to their own country, but there appears to have been no preparations made here for their reception. Immigration to Brazil is becoming highly farcical.

-The local press is complaining of extraordinary — The rocal press is companing of extraordinary bintality in the part of visitors to the zoological garden at Villa Isabet. The visitors throw broken glass, etc., into the monkey-house, and heat the animals within reach with liteir sticks. Why do not the police force at the garden prevent such brutality?

-The Italian priest, Galdi, charged with crim-—The Italian priest, Galdi, charged with criminal assault on a child of nine years, was placed under arrest on the 20th inst., but was granted the honors of military confinement because of the cloth he has disgraced. Will such a brute should be treated better than ordinary criminals passes all understunding—and yet such is the custom. He was attached to the Imperial Chapet, but has been dismissed.

...The minister of agriculture has confessed that he arrived entirely too early at his department on he arrived entirely too early at his department on the 19th list, and that he was precipitate in closing the "present" book. All the gentlemen who were not at their posts when the minister arrived, have been allowed their "graffications" for the day, and the occurrence is edifying to an extreme.

Imports.

We have had a quiet week. There have been no receipts of foreign Flour, which is reported quiet and weak, although brokers do not change quotations. In pine there is nothing new to report; the excessive freights miling from pitch-pine ports will not unlikely hint our supply of this quality, but there are various cargoes of Swedish loading or sailed for our port. Kerosene is nucleanged and steady! Lard is still rather flat, but as there have been no receipts last quotations are unchanged. Indian Com is again lower, under very free receipts. There has been as beautie in the Rice market, consequent upon an outsider importing the earge from Rangson per Arrhy Malls, and quotations are very sharply reduced; the opinion appears to be however, that peace will be made and that the decline may be convolved as temporary. We hear the deliveries of rice have been and continue to be very large, but the supply is quality considerable. In Contifs there is not much to report. Stocks again show a relintion, but prices are virtually unchanged and the market is reported quiet. A considerable quantity of new Norweeian fish has been received, but as yet none of the new Canadian; there are however, one or must existed under the excellent of the Price and Continue to the price of the new Canadian; there are however, one or must existed under the excellent of the Receipts iii.
